- The segments above could represent distinct classes or simply changes in subject matter.
- In the options above, they are assumed to be separate classes and therefore 5 minutes is allowed for each transition.
- If you have two 55 minute sessions, you definitely will need to leave in a five minute break regardless of if it is two distinct classes or just two topics with the same teacher.

Discrete Opening Activity *	Class A		Class B

This opening time is designed to mitigate problems with lateness. It could be a special opening time in each class or a communal gathering for a story or discussion or teaching or song session. It would create a nice symmetry with the Sunday schedule – gathering at the beginning on Tuesday for something else that connects everyone besides davenning.*
